Guidelines for Francis Asbury Press Publications

Francis Asbury Press publications should further the ministry of the Francis Asbury Society. To that end, they should teach or illustrate:

1. Some doctrine especially characteristic of Wesleyan Arminian Holiness theology, such as free will vs. determinism.
2. That salvation involves the totality of the New Birth, Initial Sanctification, Entire Sanctification and Growth in Holiness
3. The truth that entire sanctification is the result of a gracious act of God subsequent to the new birth.
4. That the expression of the divine life in the believer is self-giving, self-denying love growing out of a love-relationship with the Triune God.
5. That the expected outcome of gracious salvation is a life of Spirit-empowered holiness: integrity, righteousness, justice, truth (in relationships especially), and goodness.
6. That the barrier to entire sanctification is that self-will that prevents total surrender of the life to Christ, and that this surrender is both enabled and its results developed through the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

It is not necessary that any or all of the ideas mentioned above be taught solely or even primarily, but they should be a clear and pervasive foundation to all that the publication is intending to say. The Francis Asbury Press imprint should make the material more appealing to the constituency of the Francis Asbury Society and to that larger constituency for whom the Asbury name continues to have some resonance.
